George Casey It's a long way from County Clare, Ireland to Las Vegas, but that is the road that comedian/entertainer, George Casey has traveled (and all stops in between) to fulfill his life's mission: To make people happy! Casey's self-deprecating humor, tempered with his Irish brogue, have won over audiences across the country. For over 30 years now, George has been entertaining audiences all over the US with his self-deprecating sense of humor and clean jokes and stories. Some of the acts George has opened for and toured with include Rosemary Clooney, Melissa Manchester, Charley Pride, The Osmond Brothers, Ray Price, Three Dog Night, Brooklyn Bridge, Donald O'Connor and Bobby Vinton. George performed with Bobby Vinton as his Special Guest Comedy Star in Vinton's Blue Velvet Theatre in Branson, Missouri until it's close in 2002. He has performed at Caesar's Palace, The Sahara, and was a regular act at The Riviera Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas.

Ciara Fox is a 26 year old Irish Folk singer from Greencastle, Co. Tyrone. Finding her voice at a young age, Ciara's dedication to her craft has been matched only by her drive to improve and evolve musically. With strong roots in Irish traditional singing, Ciara's assured delivery, beautifully controlled ornamentation and innate ability to form an emotional connection between song and listener saw her win an All Ireland medal for singing in 2010. Since then, Ciara's confidence and maturity as a vocalist has steadily grown. Ciara now tours Ireland and the UK along with Comhaltas and performed solo on stage at the Millennium Forum, Derry. Yet all this has been prologue. Ciara's ambition to become a recording artist became a reality in 2021. 'The Parting Glass' EP was Ciara's first release that July and her full-length album, 'From The Hearthstone' followed in December, to uniformly positive reviews-with plans in place to build on this momentum in the latter half of the year. With 2 new singles in the pipeline and a live show to rival any, Ciara's star is surely on the rise.
